MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS, CIVIL COMPLAINT

TO: The Honorable President Judge -or- residing Judge in the Court of Common Pleas of Erie County. Pursuant to title
42 Pa.CS § 762 and Pa. Constitution Article 1 § 14.

State prisoner, Randolph S. Tangle, pro-se litigant herein and after, who resides at SCI-Frackville, 1111 Altamont Blvd.; Frackville, PA 17931; and who is now seeking a state court Writ of Habeas Corpus from this Honorable Court for sought remedy and extraordinary relief in this situation.

I. JURISDICTION OF STATE COURT EXERCISED

Pursuant to titles under Federal laws, 28 USC § 2241-2254

and 42 Pa.CS § 6501-6505. On the presumption of clear and convincing evidence, that the petitioner's Federal Constitutional rights have been violated, which determine a factual basis for this writ of habeas corpus. See Williams v. Taylor, 120 S.Ct. 1479 (2000); see also Chadwick v. Caulfield, 834 A.2d 562 (Pa.Sup.2003).

II. THE RESPONDENTS POSITION AND TITLE STATUS

Robert Shannon, who is the Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution Frackville is illegally detaining the petitioner in confinement of custody for incorrect sentence herein.

Employees of Erie County Courthouse, District Attorney's Office, Bradley Foulk, Jim Muscarella, Chief Court Reporter, Sharon Winkler, Clerk of Courts Office and the Erie County Court Administrator (Each) of employees are the respondents.

III. INTRODUCTION

Petitioner Tangle is proceeding in pro-se litigation and he is a layman to the laws, and the court must interpret the contents of these pleadings with respect to the holding in, Sanders v. United States, 83 S.Ct. 1068, which held:

An applicant for such relief ought not be held to the niceties of a lawyers pleading or be cursorily dismissed because his claims seems unlikely to be meritorious. On denial of access to the Court, liberty of speech and Due Process violations.

IV. SCOPE & STANDARD FOR REVIEW

This Honorable Court's scope and standard for review is whether a Habeas petition is an appropriate avenue to compel District Attorney's Office and Courthouse Employees to perform discretionary act or function where its duty to perform that act is mandated by law. If the Erie County District Attorney's Office and Courthouse Employees has refused to perform acts based on rules and regulations on procedures for Pa. Rules of Professional Conduct or Practices. Because of their erroneous interpretation of Pa. Statute, laws at Constitutional level in securing a criminal conviction.

V. STATEMENT OF THE CASE & FACTUAL HISTORY

On July 23, 1993, Pennsylvania State Police Troopers arrested the petitioner and charged him with (16) counts of Receiving Stolen Property. On August 30, 1993, a Preliminary Hearing was conducted on the above criminal charges. The contents of those charges, however, was not disclosed to the petitioner. On October 23, 1993, an Arraignment Hearing was conducted, the petitioner challenged the evidence used by the prosecutor and claimed that the evidence was tainted. On December 8, 1993, petitioner was forced to plead guilty to Sixteen (16) counts of Receiving Stolen Property, without corrections.

On January 7, 1994, Judge S. Domitrovich imposed a 4 to 12 years of imprisonment, in his Order the stated the following:

"Count one, twenty four (24) months to five (5) years of state incarceration, Consecutive to state revocation sentence at docket number 2680 of 1989; count three, twenty four (24) months to seven (7) years of state incarceration consecutive to count one at docket number 1833 of 1993; and on each of the remaining fourteen (14) counts, the petitioner is sentenced to twenty four (24) months to four (4) years of state incarceration running concurrent to the sentence at count three."

VI. REASON FOR INACCURATE CRIMINAL INDICTMENT CHARGES

In February 1, 1983, the petitioner was charged with Attempted Burglary, Court Case No. 215-1983. Petitioner was convicted by a jury and Judge Fred P. Anthony sentenced the petitioner to a 4 to 8 term of imprisonment. Petitioner was represented by Kenneth A. Zak.

On August 30, 1993, Preliminary Hearing for the petitioner and former attorney Kenneth A. Zak was at this time Assistant Prosecutor and all criminal charges were bound over to the Court of Common Pleas. Tainted evidence was challenged and over-looked by counsel, Kathy Claunch.

At the Courthouse Arraignment, the petitioner, pro-se, submitted an Omnibus Pretrial Motion for Relief, against the tainted evidence. In a retaliatory act, Court Case No. 1833-1993 was removed from Judge Shad Connelly courtroom and changed to Judge Stephanie Domitrovich. Assistant Prosecutor and Counsel for petitioner supported fabrication of evidence.

"On and off" court records, Erie County Courthouse Employees, supported inaccurate information of the petitioner's criminal counts one and two arrest indictments. Assistant Prosecutor, Kenneth A. Zak, was acting in his investigative stage instead of as an advocate. See Milstien v. Cooley, 257 F.3d 1004, 1011 (9th Cir.2001).

VII. EXHAUSTION OF STATE COURT & ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

Petitioner Tangle claims and states; that he attempted to raise his claims through Post Conviction Relief Act petitions, numerous times. "Also" the exhaustion requirements under civil action of mandamus are also waived and are not jurisdictional in this court case because Erie County, Court of Common Pleas, Court Judge Fred P. Anthony, had redressed claims and stated issues on civil action litigation by way of Writ of Mandamus Petition case docket No. 13812 (Exhausted claims was confronted).

VIII. QUESTIONS PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

1. Petitioner alleges that the Erie County, District Attorney's Office, breached a plea agreement and it's contract negotiations, under former Rule 319, Pa. Rule of Criminal Procedures which violates the petitioner's Fourteenth Amendment rights.
2. In citing Com. v. Gatling, 807 A.2d 890, 900-901 (Pa.Sup.2002). In part, the petitioner claims that his criminal counts one and two was broken on criminal acts, which contradicts count three. Criminal episodes can not link together to support on-going crimes?
3. Petitioner Tangle, has a constitutional right to have adequate, effective and meaningful access to the court; issues from both the First Amendment, right to petition government for redress of grievances and from due process Clause of Fifth and fourteenth Amendment of U.S. Constitution and 18 Pa.C.S. § 5716 (c).
4. Was both prosecutors acting in their investigative phase to support inaccurate and erroneous information in filing a criminal complaint against the petitioner in securing a conviction? Petitioner had due process right and protected liberty interest in the request for expungement of misleading criminal charges.

5. "Under the Miscarriage of Justice Exception," was the petitioner deprived of his protected liberty interest and due process rights in seeking a fair and impartial trial of being actually innocent. Legal errors and manifest injustice can be demonstrated.
6. The presumption of correctness in the Court of Common Pleas of Erie County, on factual determinations on the truth about a conviction. Concerning contents of Arrest Warrant and Surveillance Tapes, prejudicial information should have been expunged and/or dismissed.
7. Under Pa. Constitution Article 1 § 8, 1 § 25 and Pa. Wiretapping and Electronic Surveillance Control Acts, was the the petitioner deprived of his secured legal rights in disclosure of criminal complaints on investigative activities. Mistaken records amounted to Constitutional violations of the laws.
8. Was the petitioner deprived of secured rights within Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments. Due to a conflict of interest and multiple representations by a former attorney, who turned to prosecute the petitioner 11 years later on incorrect charges?
9. Was Pa. Rules of Professional Conduct, violated by Erie County District Attorney's Office and its Employees? At level of Miscarriage of Justice, Prosecutorial Misconduct

10. A error had occurred when the petitioner was deprived and denied his protected liberty interest and due process rights in concerning admissibility of evidence of a co-defendant.
11. Petitioner Tangle contends, that his constitutional rights were violated in having adequate, effective and meaningful access to the courts under First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights. In bad faith, the Court Administrator, County Clerk of Court's Office and Chief Court Reporter knowingly interfered with the petitioner seeking his sought furnished court transcripts and criminal records. See 925 F.Supp. 334-337 and 100 F.Supp. 1271, 1275-77.
12. Petitioner Tangle is claiming that courthouse employees have fraudulently concealed specific court records, arrest affidavit information and identification of criminal charges. "So" that the petitioner can not challenge tainted evidence which violated the petitioner's civil and constitutional rights. Demonstrated in case, 228 F.Supp.2d 553 and 838 F.Supp. 411
13. Petitioner Tangle is also claiming that unknown courthouse (Employees), claim that the petitioner has copies of criminal charges? This misleading fact or statement clearly denies the petitioner to access to the court's, liberty of speech, freedom of expression, denial of procedural due process and protected liberty interest in violation of the First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments rights.
14. Finally, petitioner is claiming a civil conspiracy claim against public employees and courthouse workers for fraudulent concealment of material, records and videotapes.

The conspiracy cover-up is to support corrupt employees in using tainted evidence against the petitioner's constitutional amendment rights. See 187 F.Supp.2d 400, 294 F.Supp.2d 681

CONCLUSION TO WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS PETITION

WHEREFORE, upon careful and independent consideration of this state court petition for writ of habeas corpus, there has been substantial evidence showing of a direct denial of constitutional rights and state statute violations "also" protected liberty interest and due process rights in the laws.

"Furthermore" should the Erie County, Court of Common Pleas, rule on case management, pleadings, request for discovery of (Court Records, Arrest Reports, and Video Tapes) preliminary objections from the Respondents and/or Answer response in its factual findings to support.

The Honorable Court should hold a evidentiary hearing on the meritable issues. To show a state prisoner in custody on violation of his constitutional amendment rights clear and convincing evidence can demonstrate this factual finding of innocence and fundamental miscarriage of justice was done to him. See Commonwealth v. Jackson, 809 A.2d 411, 416 (2002).
